Mrs. Eliza Sherer Passed Away Friday

Mrs. Eliza Sherer died at her home Friday morning, July 16, 1920, after an illness from heart trouble extending over four or five months.

Mrs. Sherer was a daughter of Vislo Chapin Hamlin and Asa Darwin Hamlin, and was born in Smithport February 23, 1857. She is survived by three sisters: Mrs. Byron Badger and Mrs. Flora Backus of Smethport, and Mrs. Stanley Townsend of Lancaster, Ohio.

She was married December 14, 1874 to Christian Sherer, to them were born four children: Clarence Henry Asa Darwin, Frederick and Elsie Marion all of whom reside in Smethport.

She possessed a contended home loving nature. There was a magnetism about her which atracted every child. She was a devoted mother, a good neighbor and a loyal friend. Her cheerfulness and warn geniality will be a great loss to all who know her.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon by Rev. Mr. W. E. Van Dyke at All Saints' Chapel, East Smethport. Interment was in Rose Hill cemetery.

BAPTIST ENJOY PICNIC WED. AT GALCO PARK

The Baptists had a very enjoyable time last week, Wednesday, at their picnic at Galco Park. In the morning it rained and it would have been an uneventful morning if it had not been for people falling into the creek to get the boats out and other people were bent upon doing the high dive from the bank in getting the boats in again, regardless of the damage they did their suits. In the afternoon it cleared off and the people had a very enjoyable time rowing, swimming, running, playing base ball and the [illegible] They all had a very happy time right up to the moment when they clamored into the buss to go home.

RT. REV. WALTER H. OVERS WILL SPEAK

The Rt. Rev. Walter H. Overs, Bishop of Liberia, West Africa, will speak in St. Luke's Church both morning and evening, Sunday, July 25. Services at 10:30 a.m., and 7:30 p.m.

The Bishop who has just returned from Liberia, will speak on his experiences. All are cordially invited.

ATT'Y SHATTUCK TO DEFEND F. FRASINO

Kane Republican: Frank Frasino, of this city, held in the county jail at Smethport on a murder charge, has retained Claude W. Shattuck as attorney. Attorney Shattuck defended Dicello. Following Frasino's arrest in this city for killing an Italian in defense of his wife and his home, Frasino entered a plea of guilty and refused the services of an attorney. It would seem, if reports are true, that Attorney Shattuck has sufficient evidence available to build up a strong justification for the shooting.

AWARDED CONTRACT FOR McKEAN COUNTY BRIDGES

B. L. Gilluley of Port Allegany has been awarded the contract to paint five bridges in McKean County. The bridges are: Red House, Brooklyn, Portage, Silver Spring, Hill and Ceres. Mr. Gilluley and son were in town Tuesday. We understand that the work on the contract is to start at once.

MOVEMENT TO RAISE A MEMORIAL TO DR. ANNA HOWARD SHAW

The following article in regard to the Dr. Anna Howard Shaw Memorial should have appeared in the MINER last week, but owing to the many difficulties surrounding the issuing of the paper it was omitted.

New York, June 2.—A nation wide movement to raise a memorial to Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, pioneer suffragist, was launched here today.

Confident that thirty-six states will ratify the Federal Amendment, with[illegible] women of America who are eligible will be voters next November, eastern suffrage leaders met in the headquarters of the National American Woman Suffrage Association and organized the Anna Howard Shaw Memorial Committee. Mrs. John O. Miller of Pittsburgh was elected chairman.

It was voted to establish permanent headquarters at 1606 Finance building, Philadelphia, Pa., and to raise a $500,000 fund with which to found a foundation of politics in Bryn Mawr College and a Foundation of preventive medicine at the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania.

The committee decided that Dr. Shaw's spirit would be more harmoniously expressed by a memorial not static, but creative. Other members of the memorial committee are Mrs. J. Claude Bedford, vice chairman, Dr. Ellen C. Potter, secretary, Mrs. James Starr assistant treasurer. Mrs. F. Louis Slade, Dr. Susan M. Kingsbury, and Mrs. Henry Wade Rogers of New York.

In raising a memorial to Dr. Shaw the suffragists are following the mandate laid down by the National American Woman Suffrage Association, at its recent convention in Chicago.

Mrs. J. O. Miller, chairman, at the close of the meeting issued this statement:

"Twenty-seven million women will shortly be eligible to cast their votes for the next President of the United States. Millions of these women desire to give a thank offering in memory of Dr. Anna Howard Shaw before they exercise the franchise in November.

"Dr. Shaw was a pioneer. She was a pioneer in higher education for women. She experienced hunger, cold and sacrifice to attain the degrees of Doctor of Divinity and Doctor if Medicine, and this opened the path for all women who came after her.

"Dr. Shaw was a pioneer in the movement to secure the extension of the franchise to women on equal terms with men.

"Every American Woman owes a debt of gratitude to Anna Howard Shaw. Now is the time to pay it."

CHANGES DATE OF ANNUAL PICNIC

Hon. Fred Rasmussen, Secretary of Agriculture, to Meet Farmers at Picnic.

Secretary Rasmussen has such a demand upon his time that it was necessary to change the date of the Annual Farm Bureau and Pomona Grange picnic from August 13 to Tuesday, August 10.

So pass the word along that the day for the farmers of McKean County will be held at Turtle Point, Tuesday, August 10, and, in addition to hearing their secretary of agriculture and the secretary of the State Grange, Fred Brenckman, they may expect a good lively time in the form of special music, base ball games and foot races. All are welcome.

TOMMIE CLARK NOW MANAGER BALL TEAM

Robert Hull, who has been manager of Smethport base ball team is now working at Rew and cannot be in town except Sundays, when he will appear to twirl that African Slosh ball of his. He has turned the management of the team over to the "Shimmy Ball Artist," Tommie Clark. Hull has done splendid work for the team and it's a safe bet that Tommie will be right there too. A. C. Gallagher, who is captain, was also elected treasurer last Sunday so with this strong outfit we should be able to [illegible] every thing that comes our way in base ball.

GEORGE GERRETT HURT

While fixing the water main at East Smethport Wednesday morning George Gerrett was seriously burned He was pouring some hot lead into a pipe joint when in some way the lead hit the water making it fly every direction, burning Mr. Gerrett severely about the face and arms. He was taken to Dr. Chadwick, who dressed the wounds. Mr. Gerrett though badly burned, is doing as well as can be expected.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY WINSLOW

In the death of Mrs. Mary Catherine Winslow at her home in Crosby, Saturday, July 10, 1920, a good and noble woman has gone to her abiding home.

Mrs. Winslow was the daughter of William and Elizabeth Nelson, she was born at Driftwood, Cameron County, Pa. There survive, two sisters, Mrs. John Dightner of Jersey Shore, Pa., Mrs. Hugh Lane of Tunkhannock, Pa., and one brother, Mr. Harry Nelson of Ocean City, N. J.

Mrs. Winslow was married to Mr. S. L. Winslow, August 1876. She leaves behind to mourn her death, her husband and seven children, William F. of Masten, Pa., Selbourn C. of Crosby, Mrs. John Natello of Buffalo, N. Y., Grace E., George A. Kermit B., and Gretchen I of Crosby.

Mrs. Winslow was a child of the church, having in very early life united in its fellowship, and from childhood there was no break in her interest. As assistant Sunday school superintendent, W. C. T. U. worker, and treasurer of the church of which she was an official member, Mrs. Winslow found congenial opportunities for Christian expression.

Beautiful were the services Mrs. Winslow rendered to the church, but it was as a home maker that she excelled. It to make home beautiful, the sanctuary of life, rearing its children in the spirit and precepts of the gospel, and cheer and hope to her husband, and an example to the community, is a true ideal, then our sister, though frail in body but strong in spirit, realized a group of life's highest purposes, and while "her children rise up and call her blessed," we are assured that the Master is saying "well done."

Mrs. Winslow knew that her death could not be long deferred, but not to disturb the happiness of the family life, she strove to hide her true condition. Her silence under months and years of bodily suffering was eloquent testimony of her unselfish consideration for others, and of her heroic spirit—for the power to suffer in silence is one of the marks of true heroism, and nobility of character.

The words of the Wise Man may be fittingly quoted, "She looked well to the ways of her household, eating not the bread of idleness, the heart of her husband did safely trust in her, she did him good and not evil all her days, she opened her mouth with wisdom, and in her tongue was the law of kindness, her children rise up and call her blessed, she shall rejoice in time to come, and her works shall praise her in the gates."

The funeral was in Crosby church, and interment in Colegrove cemetery. The pastor of the church was assisted by Dr. I. H. Crocker of Olean, the choir sang appropriate hymns, and many beautiful tributes of flowers were sent by sympathising friends, all of which the family truly appreciate and tender thanks.

SAYS PROHIBS MAY ENDORSE HARDING

Elisha K. Kane of Kushequa Confers With Republican Nominee.

KANE, Pa., July 21.—An effort will be made by the delegates to the Prohibitionists' national convention in Lincoln, Neb., week of July 21, to procure the indorsement of Senator Warren G. Harding as their standard bearer, according to Elisha K. Kane of Kushequa, a delegate at large and a potential factor in former conventions of the "dry" forces.

He was in Kane last evening enroute to the convention city.

Mr. Kane has already taken the matter up with Senator Harding. He seeks to induce the senator to make an out and out declaration in favor of prohibition, and failing to do this, will seek his nomination at the convention, the acceptance of which will place Senator Harding, he says, as standing on the prohibition platform, insofar as it is not inconsistent with that of the Republicans.

Mr. Kane is owner of the Kushequa railroad.

ACCREDITED HERD WORK

McKean County, Pennsylvania: County Agent, P. S. Crossman, after doing a little missionary work in one community of this county, called together the dairymen of that particular community on the night of July 6 for the purpose of discussing the value of tuberculosis free cattle in milk production.

After discussing this subject and answering questions for nearly two hours, thirty-seven men stepped forward and signed agreement blanks applying for the federal and state test, through which plan the herds are to be accredited.

The farmers of this community are to be paid a premium of 10 cents for every hundred pounds of milk that comes from tuberculosis free cattle. These farmers are not large producers, but the ten cents per hundred will mean on an average to all the dairymen of this community an increase of the yearly income of at least $180.

Since that time the work has been progressing quite steadily so that McKean County will soon be on the map as one of the foremost in eradicating tuberculosis.

Wool Market Is Very Dull

The correspondence of the County Agent with seven of the largest wool concerns of the country revealed the fact that none of them were willing at that time (May 10) to quote any prices, but within the last week some of the same companies have asked concerning the size of the pool and grading, and what price we were expecing to receive, which would tend to make one believe that the market would soon be considerably better.

We do know through our State Secretary, "Bill" Connell, that the state of Ohio is holding solid and does not expect to sell unless a reasonable price is offered.

At a meeting held in Potter County at which County Agent Crossman presided, the sheepmen in that county voted to join the McKean County Sheep and Wool Growers' Association, incorporated, and to pool their wool at Port Allegany at the same time the men of this county pool their wool.

H. J. RICE RESIGNS W. S. S. COMMISSION

H. J. Rice resigned July 15 from the chairmanship of the McKean County War Savings Stamp commission, after doing infinite good in that capacity. When Mr. Rice took over the work a year ago, McKean County ranked about 17th among the other counties of the state, however, though, Mr. Rice's incessant efforts, McKean County now holds second place, and in January, February and March we headed the list with sales for 1920, amounting to nearly $60,000.

In a letter to Mr. Rice, W Harrison Walker, chairman of Group 3, says:

Permit me to advise you that your services have not only been satisfactory in every respect, but are very much appreciated by the department as well as myself. You have always shown a very keen interest in this movement and the results have always been entirely satisfactory.

W. HARRISON WALKER,
Chairman of Group 3.

SMETHPORT PEOPLE OBSERVE AIRPLANE

An aeroplane was seen flying over town Wednesday and Friday of last week. It is understood that the plane belonged to Mr. Emery of Bradford. As it came up the creek from Farmers Valley, it circled about the Fair Grounds and thence to Crosby, but was soon again seen going over town and toward Bradford over town hill.

The people are confidently expecting an aeroplane exhibition either in August at the American Legion Convention or at the McKean County Fair in September. No doubt a number of Smethport people would gladly try a flight in the clouds if the opportunity were offered. One of our citizens has already felt the thrill of this experience and declares it cannot be equalled.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Freeman went to Port Allegany Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. B. H. Phillips.

—Mrs. Belle Williams of Eldred is spending a few days with Mrs. C. W. Freeman this week.

RAIN STOPPED GREATEST BALL GAME OF SEASON

One of the fastest games of the season was witnessed last Sunday afternoon by Smethport fans. There was "pep" from the word go. Five innings concluded the game on account of a down pour of rain, Umpire Knapp called the game off, much to his sorrow. It isn't necessary to mention any individual player as each one of the local boys showed nothing but Big-League ball playing.

When it started to rain the Franklinville boys stopped, but the local boys were so enthused that they argued to finish the game, finally the empire was forced to call the game with a score 0 to 0. The fans are anxious to get Franklinville back so they can see a real live game.

The fans are looking forward for another fast game next Sunday as the Delicia A. C. Team of Elmira, will be here. From all reports this team has plenty of speed. Everybody go out and see a good game.

Mother Found Two Children Playing With Blacksnake

Missing her two children Mrs. Geo. Mead of Susquehanna, Pa., located them in a field nearby. Her four-year-old son was astride a black snake more than three feet in length, and his sister, Gladys, three years old, was striking the snake on the head with a switch.

The youngsters were laughing, and the woman said the snake seemed to be contented. The reptile glided away at sight of the mother.—Star-Record.

OLE BULL PILGRIMAGE BASKET PICNIC AND PROGRAM

The Pennsylvania Historical Commission and the Potter County Historical Society will hold their July meeting at the ruins of Ole Bull Castle, near Oleona, Potter County, July 30th.

Everybody is invited to come and bring their lunch with them. It will be a real basket picnic for no lunches will be sold on the ground. Hot coffee can be purchased by the pint or quart. Bring your own containers for the coffee.

Governor Sproul, Gifford Pinchot, Dr. E. E. Sparks, President of State College, Dr. S. Drinker, President of Lehigh University, member of the Pennsylvania Historical Commission and the Forestry Commission, as well as many other state officials, will be present.

Some of the country's famous musicians will render several selections and compositions written by Ole Bull. The Boy Band of Coudersport will furnish music.

A one-way traffic route will be enforced by State Constabulary traffic policemen. Ample arrangements have been made for taking care of the crowd and parking of automobiles.

It will be one of the greatest historical events of the Northern Tier and every person should come and have a part in the celebration. Come early for the picnic. Program begins at 2 p.m. Be sure and bring your lunch.

SENATOR WARREN HARDING'S CREED

"To safeguard America first; to stabilize America first; to prosper America first; to think of America first; to exalt America first; to live for and revere America first," * * * "we proclaim Americanism and acclaim Americanism."

It is a good sign when the politicians show courage enough to tell what they really think about the grafters and agitators who are committing wrongs in the name of union labor. First thing we know there won't be much sympathy for a sympathetic strike and then we'll all be able to tend to business and keep the wheels a-going.

We gather from the scornful comment of Democratic Congressmen that the Chicago platform is a sound Republican document.—Boston Transcript.

England does not like the nomination of Senator Harding and her hard-boiled papers are saying so. However, we must not lose sight of the very material fact that the Chicago convention was not seeking to please either England or the Democratic press of this country.—Ft. Wayne News.

"Down, But Never Out."

The Republican Congress enacted into law a bill porviding for the promotion of vocational rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry. According to Representative Stuart F. Reed of West Virginia, the new law will help to save many industrial cripples from lives of hopelessness and dependence and fit them to engage in gainful and useful occupations. The amount to be expended for this purpose is $500,000 the first year, $750,000 the second year and $1,000,000 the third year with no further increase. "The money provided in this bill is for the splendid work of salvaging men," stated Representative Reed recently. "It is right and humane and it is a sound, economic business proposition. It means taking helpless men from the poor houses and sanitariums and making them self-supporting instead of remaining a burden to themselves, to their relatives and to society. For every dollar spent in this kind of work it is safe to say that $10 will eventually be saved to the state and the nation."

Labor in the Republican Platform

How can conservative labor expect serious consideration for its demands when its leaders are guilty of such garbling of a party pronouncement as Mr. Compers and Mr. Woll's report of the Republican plank on labor?

This report alleges that the plank "denies the right to strike."

The assertion is a flat falsehood in effect. The plank does deny the right to strike against the government. Every rational implication from the rest of the plank is recognition of the right to strike.

The report asserts the plank proposes "industrial enslavement and an abrogation of rights as precious as life itself."

If to deny policemen and firemen or other public employes the right to paralyze the functions of government and leave society without protection is enslavement, then indeed the plank dealers for enslavement. We do not think intelligent labor is ready to defend any such theory. If it could establish such a doctrine it would endanger its own welfare, for manual labor would suffer as much as any other class from the chaos which must follow the strike against government.

The plank recognizes collective bargaining and does not deny the right to strike in private industrial controversy. It does deplore the waste of strikes and lockouts and urges the creation of more and better means of voluntary adjustment of giving employes prompt and impartial means of getting their claims heard and fairly decided, and thus of bringing about the just advancement of labor by the least wasteful methods.

If such proposals are "turning its back on labor," then labor expects something more than any other class of citizens would ask for itself.

But we do not think Mr. Gompers and Mr. Woll express the real opinion of the wage earner on this plank. Mr. Gompers is a partisan Democrat, who has been highly honored by the present administration. His report shows that he cannot be fair or is not willing to be fair toward the Republican platform. There are hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions of wage earners who are not partisan Democrats, who, in fact, in party matters, are Republicans, and these we believe will resent Mr. Gompers' distortion of the Republican plank on labor, which expresses views any fair minded wage earner may respect and approve.—Chicago Tribune.

Study the Work of Congress

The Republican platform pays just tribute to the work of the Republican majority in Congress. It is a record of achievement which The Times hopes every voter may familiarize himself with in order that he may better know what his party has accomplished in the splendid constructive work carried on under great difficulties. The purpose of the legislation enacted was to cure the most grevious ills which maladministration of the Wilson regime brought into being. Opposing all such effort, that administration was at times able to defeat some of the undertakings, when the presidential veto could not be overridden.

Despite this margin influence in progressive law-making, many strong measures were enacted.

It is good to see the Republican national platform carrying the story of this party work in the very beginning of its declarations. The nation will get the reminder, and will be fortified against the slanders which an obstacle-using executive branch of government already has had set going.

Let the people review carefully the endeavors and the results of the last congressional session. That is all the Republicanism of the body asks. It is confident of golden opinions from informed minds.—St. Louis Times.

YIELDS TO MARCH OF TIME

Old Hotel in Quincy, Mass., Associated With Famous Men, Is to Become Business Block.

The old Hancock house, situated in City square, Quincy, has ceased to be a hotel. The present owner of the property, Henry M. Faxon, is to have the upper part removed and the first floor converted into a large business block. The hotel has only provided sleeping quarters for a number of years.

In the days of the old stage coach the Hancock house was one of the leading hotels of southeastern Massachusetts and the first place to which travelers resorted for refreshments. Among the distinguished men who have been entertained there was Daniel Webster, going to and from his home on the old Plymouth coach. On account of Mr. Webster's liberality in dispensing good cheer it was frequently a long time before the coach was able to proceed on its trip. Mr. Webster was always generous in his tips to the stable boys and bell hops of those ancient days and history says that he often threw $5 goldpieces to the scrambling boys in the hotel yard.

The present structure was built in 1837, but several years ago the ground floor was remodeled into stores and only the upper part was used as the hotel proper. When Adams academy was in its prime the place was used as a boarding house for students who came to Quincy from other cities and states and were obliged to make their abode in the city of presidents.

TURNING TO HOME GARDENS

Indications Are That People Are Beginning to Realize the Danger of a Food Famine.

A local seed store was crowded with customers.

"What does this mean?" the proprietor was asked.

"I guess it means that other people are thinking what I do," he said, "that unless food production is speeded up there'll be famine conditions in this country in 1921. Farmers say they can't get help in order to produce our food as usual, and it's up to every man to help himself. We run as high as 1,200 customers a day here. This is in addition to a big mail-order business. It's going to keep up like this all through the month, too. It did last year."

The seed man said that sales indicated that persons who decided to retire from the home-garden business, now that the war is over, have changed their ideas, and that the number of home gardens is increasing instead of diminishing.

He added that it is strange that while there was much crop shortage last year seeds of all kinds, with the probable exception of peas, are in ample supply.—Indianapolis News.

Stenographer Extraordinary.

Two members of the bar were trying a replevin suit in the superior court recently and in the course of the trial got into a sharp wrangle—as lawyers sometimes do—over the admission of a certain piece of evidence. The wrangle resolved itself into an oral battle in which both lawyers tried to talk at once.

They spoke in loud tones and at a rapid-fire gait. When the smoke had cleared away and the case was over they were quite surprised to learn that the court stenographer had been able to get down in his book every word they had said, despite the fact they were both talking at the same time. The clerk of courts commented on the feat.

"Oh," remarked one of the lawyers, "that little chap could take down a hailstorm and never miss a stone!"—Portland Express.

Fading Shrines of Oriental Splendor.

To me, after revisiting the East after an absence of ten years, it seems as if all its splendid past and all its present discontent were recorded and symbolized in the imperial palaces of Peking, Seoul and Tokyo. Ten years ago all three were the habitations of emperors, sacred spots from whose mysterious depths issued the edicts whereat men trembled and obeyed. Today the Son of Heaven and the Lord of the Morning Calm have gone their ways, to join the mournful company of kings in exile. Only his majesty of Tokyo remains, a dim, mysterious figure in the medieval seclusion of Chiyoda, a picturesque survival of old Japan, like an idol in a shrine, a sort of living Buddha in the great new city throbbing with machinery.—S. O. P. Bland in Asia.

Unconscious Cerebration.

Apropos of the popular interest in the ouija board, a correspondent says: "An experiment in unconscious cerebration may be made in this way. Take a 5-cent piece and to it attach a fine silk thread with a bit of sealing wax. Then take an empty tumbler and suspend the nickel in the center of the glass, holding the thread tightly between the thumb and finger and resting the elbow on the 'funny bone.' Then, without conscious volition of the muscles, think of its movement east, west, north or south, or returning to the center. You will find that the coin will obey the thought, although you give consciously no direction for the movement."—From the Outlook.

Why man—
we made this cigarette for you!

Camel
CIGARETTES

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes; or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

CAMELS fit your cigarette desires so completely you'll agree they were made to meet your taste!

Unique flavor, fragrance and mellow-mild-body due to Camels quality and expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos are a revelation! You will prefer the Camel blend to either kind of tobacco smoked straight!

With Camels you can go the limit without tiring your taste. They leave no unpleasant cigaretty aftertaste; no unpleasant cigaretty odor!

To get a line on why Camels win you so completely compare them puff-for-puff with any cigarette in the world at any price. You'll prefer quality to coupons or premiums!

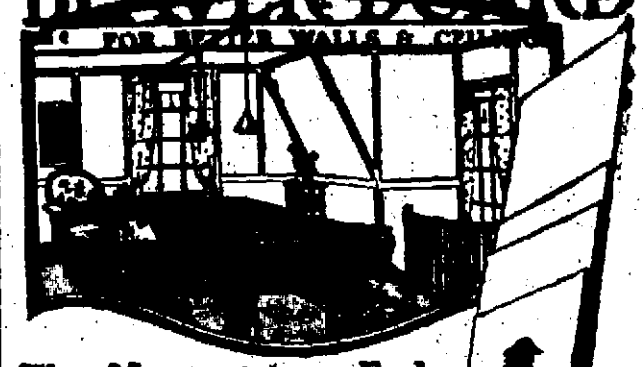
BEAVER BOARD
FOR BETTER WALLS & CEILINGS



The Means to an End of Waste Space

A few panels of Beaver Board, a little wood trim, a hammer, nails and saw—all you need to cover up old cracked plaster and wallpaper and put new life into any part of the house.

Beaver Board plays a major part in this worthwhile operation. While it is covering up unsightly cracks and dingy wallpaper it is providing a surface for painting and decorating, and ending the wall and ceiling question once and for all time.

Beaver Board is built up into large flawless panels from strong, pure wood fibres. When you have lived with it you will know why it is displacing lath and plaster in new houses and putting new life into old ones.

Miss Ruth Jones, Ed Gladholms, Ed Oakland and Eric Josephson of Smethport attended the dance at Georgeson hall on Monday evening.

Bradtail Post 128, American Legion, Smethport, will have a dance in the Lyceum on the evening of July 28, 1920. The funds of which are to be used for the coming American Legion Convention of McKean County. The Smethport orchestra is furnishing music free for the occasion and the use of the Lyceum is also being donated by Mr. Quirk.

John Freeman arrived here on Saturday evening, after a many months' absence in Japan, where he was engaged with a large glass factory, under construction there. Mr. Freeman has very many interesting experiences to tell of his life in Japan.

Mrs. Frank Burt has received a check of $220 from the government and will receive $20 per month hereafter as a pension on account of the death of Frank Burt in the World War. This was secured through the efforts of the local American Legion, who were greatly aided through the efforts and courtesies of Congressman E. J. Jones. Congressman Jones has an enviable record for results obtained for soldiers and heir relatives and can be relied upon to do his best for any service man worthy of help from the government.

The young girls of the Baptist Church who have been camping for a week at Burtville broke camp Monday. They were chaperoned by Rena Allen, Muriel Montres and Elizabeth Evans.
